

Raw Materials, Refining, Resources and Expertise, We put wax to work.

More than refining wax for industrial applications, food packaging, and product manufacturers, Palayesh Paraffin Khavaran is the strategic partner of choice for companies who want value across the entire supply chain. Palayesh Paraffin Khavaran shares its unique perspective on our industry with customers, media and educators. As one of the Iran's leading wax producers, our team sees the world of wax from end to end. This vision is part of every customer relationship we have. Partnership isn't just a popular corporate catchphrase. Whether helping a customer develop a new product, or solving a technical obstacle, you can count on our expertise.

We will ensure our products and services are cost competitive and that resources are continually dedicated to productivity improvements throughout the company.

Environmental responsibility, product recycling and waste management go beyond our own footprint.
